

AARUPADAI VEEDU MEDICAL COLLEGE & HOSPITAL
DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY MEDICINE
CELEBRATED SURGICAL STRIKE DAY
29th of September 2018

Government of India has asked Education Department officials to organize special activities in public schools and Colleges from September 28 to 30.

According to the circular released by the Education Department Secretary, the government has directed the schools and Colleges with NCC units to invite war veterans and organize a special parade followed by motivational lectures. The circular also asked the department officials to make students pledge their support for armed forces by writing letters or cards for them, addressed to the nearest Army formation.

Department of Community Medicine organized a special parade and pledge to support Armed forces on September 29th. All the Students and Faculties from Aarupadai Veedu Medical College and Hospital took active part in the Surgical Strike Day. Some selected photographs of the activities are as given below.

In commemoration of the successful surgical strike done by our Indian army on 29th September 2016 we are celebrating the surgical strike day today. All faculties, students and PGs shall assemble in college playground at 9.30 am today. There will be a parade followed by a pledge. Ex-service man Major Dr. Govardhan will take the salute and deliver a speech. Let us all pay honour to our Indian soldiers.
